

Seeking young journalists for European workshop in Potsdam!

Which role will journalists play in the future?
What is necessary for the training of European journalists?

The M100 Sanssouci Colloquium, the largest gathering of European journalists, together with the Friedrich Ebert Foundation invites young journalists from all over Europe to Potsdam to debate these questions. From 21st to 25th August 2008 young media professionals have the opportunity to engage in discussions about training of journalists and their role in the future vis-à-vis the internet, blogs and mobile phone reporting during the M100 Youth Media Workshop. In co-operation with German media experts chances and challenges for young journalists will be explored.

Conditions of participation:

Applications are welcome from young journalists between 18 and 26 from the whole of Europe. Please submit a brief text (max. 3 pages) or a video (max. 3 mins.).

Topic: What does it mean to be a journalist in my country.

Please add your CV and your journalistic preference: Print, Online, TV, Radio or Photography.

The workshop language is English.

The organisers of the Youth Media Workshop will bear the costs of accommodation and meals during the workshop. In addition there is a travel allowance of up to 250 Euro.

Please submit your application by 30 June 2008 by email to:

s.sasse@m100potsdam.org

or by post to:

M100 Office

Sabine Sasse

Am Alten Markt 9

D-14467 Potsdam

www.m100potsdam.org

In co-operation with:

Supported by:

